Gender in the Workplace

Tuesday, April 2, 2019

8:30 – 10:30am | Doors open at 8:00am | Complimentary breakfast provided

Mt. Wachusett Community College, North Café | 444 Green Street | Gardner, MA

This seminar will focus on gender dynamics in the workplace. In light of the Me Too movement, people are more concerned than ever that they create a welcoming and inclusive environment. Gender, inclusive of transgender, accommodations, and creating a culture of inclusivity is key to a productive work place. Learn how you can do just that!

- ▶ Learn some of the current challenges facing the modern workforce inclusive of gender and transgender representation
- ▶ Examine your own places of work to discuss how you can improve the climate for those of all genders
- ▶ Share your personal and professional experiences as we tackle this challenging topic together

PRESENTER: DR. JULIE ELKINS, Senior Student Affairs Educator, Bunker Hill Community College; Adjunct Faculty, Masters in Higher Education Programs, SNHU

Dr. Elkins has decades of recognized work as a national and regional leader in student affairs and personnel administration. In 2008, The American College Personnel Association (ACPA) created the “Julie Elkins Outstanding Community Service Award” in honor of her dedication to social justice issues within the profession.
