Why do they volunteer?

“It is one of the beautiful compensations of life that no man can sincerely try to help another without helping himself.”

Ralph Waldo Emerson
Involuntary Volunteering

• Employer expectations
• School requirement
• Sometimes we “plant seeds”
Students who were engaged in some sort of community service in high school — whether mandatory or voluntary — were more likely to volunteer or be involved in some civic activity.

Joseph E. Kahne, Mills College
It’s Good For You

Volunteers who devote a “considerable” amount of time to volunteer activities (about 100 hours per year) are most likely to exhibit positive health outcomes.

Ticket sales are low for this year’s gala . . . So what will you say to your volunteers?

Write it down
Communication

Matures & Boomers

“Ticket sales are low for this year’s gala. We need for each committee member to sell 20 tickets. Please reach out to your business and social network.”

Genexers and Millenials

“Ticket sales are low for this year’s gala. What can we do about it?”
