Privacy Notice

WHAT DOES ENTERPRISE BANK DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?
Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?
The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:
- Social Security number
- Credit history
- Account balances
- Overdraft history
- Payment history
- Checking account information
When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?
All financial companies need to share customers’ personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share customers’ personal information; the reasons Enterprise Bank chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

For our everyday business purposes - such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus

Who We Are
Who is providing this notice?
Enterprise Bank means the following institutions: Enterprise Bank and Trust Company, Enterprise Investment Services LLC, and Enterprise Insurance Services LLC.

What We Do
How does Enterprise Bank protect my personal information?
To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

Why can’t I limit all sharing?
Federal law gives you the right to limit only:
- sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes - information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

Definitions
Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies.

Affiliates
- Our affiliates include:
  - Companies such as: Enterprise Investment Services LLC and Enterprise Insurance Services LLC

Non-affiliates
Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies.

- Enterprise Bank does not share with non-affiliates so they can market to you.

Joint Marketing
A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.

- Our joint marketing partners include card companies, investment companies and insurance companies.

Enterprise Bank will honor customer requests not to market them for our products and services, either directly by us or under a joint marketing arrangement with other financial companies.

Other Important Information
For Massachusetts Customers. We will not share personal information from deposit or share relationships with non-affiliates either for them to market to you or for joint marketing - without your authorization.
