Volunteering: It’s not a new concept

What is the essence of life? To serve others and to do good.

Aristotle (384-322 BC)
Today’s Topics

• Advantages and disadvantages of using volunteers
• Recruiting and retaining volunteers
• What motivates volunteers
• Generational differences
• Losing some good volunteers
Overview

- 62.8 million Americans volunteered
- 7.9 billion hours volunteered
- $184 billion estimated value of volunteering (based on independent sector estimate of average value of a volunteer hour ($23.07))
- The value of all that volunteering is almost 20 times more than the amount shoppers spent on Black Friday this year!

Why do they volunteer?

“It is one of the beautiful compensations of life that no man can sincerely try to help another without helping himself.”

Ralph Waldo Emerson
Involuntary Volunteering

- Employer expectations
- School requirement
- Sometimes we “plant seeds”
Students who were engaged in some sort of community service in high school — whether mandatory or voluntary — were more likely to volunteer or be involved in some civic activity.

Joseph E. Kahne, Mills College
It’s Good For You

Volunteers who devote a “considerable” amount of time to volunteer activities (about 100 hours per year) are most likely to exhibit positive health outcomes.

Ticket sales are low for this year’s gala . . . So what will you say to your volunteers?

Write it down
Communication

Matures & Boomers

“Ticket sales are low for this year’s gala. We need for each committee member to sell 20 tickets. Please reach out to your business and social network.”

Genexers and Millennials

“Ticket sales are low for this year’s gala. What can we do about it?”
Our Volunteers

You’ve got to love ‘em
You’ve Got To Love ‘Em

- Determine what you need of your volunteers.
- Create a job description including time requirement.
- Carefully match the volunteer to the job.
- Make it purposeful.
- Make their job impactful.
- Communicate effectively.
- Appreciate them appropriately.
"I've learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel."

Dr. Maya Angelou
Thank you for your attention and participation.
